

SERCK[®]

AUTOMOTIVE

What's special to some, is standard to us.

Serck Automotive was founded with a clear purpose: to deliver precision-engineered thermal management components to the aftermarket.

Built on over 30 years of specialist expertise in cooling systems, Serck Automotive from ELTA delivers engineering-led solutions across two major categories:

Engine Cooling

Serck Automotive Engine Cooling components deliver reliable thermal control across coolant circulation, temperature regulation and heat exchange, helping protect critical engine components and maintain optimal performance.

Heating, Ventilation and Air Conditioning (HVAC)

Our HVAC components provide reliable climate control, with solutions for airflow management and blower regulation designed for consistent performance and seamless integration.

AN ELTA BRAND

Working in partnership with ELTA, Serck Automotive combines deep technical knowledge with a robust and dependable supply chain — ensuring the right part is available when it's needed, without compromise.

Every component is developed to meet stringent OE standards, guaranteeing accuracy in fit, form, and function, and giving installers complete confidence in performance.
